ANOTHER AGITATOR ARRESTED.

Organizer Osborne Charged with Making Dangerous Speeches.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 14.—J. B. Osborne, National Organizer for the Painters and Decorators' Union, was arrested last night while making a speech on one of the public squares.

Osborne is an agitator and has been making dangerous speeches here for some time. Chief of Police Connolly notified him to stop, and when he appeared to speak last night he was arrested on the platform. There was great excitement and violence from his sympathizers, and for a time a riot was threatened. He refused offers of bail and remained locked up until this afternoon, when he was freed $100 by the Police Judge for obstructing the street. He appealed the case.

He says he still intends to speak, and further trouble is feared.

HIGHWAYMEN IN TROT'S STREETS.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 14.—John Shanahan, Frank Wilson, Thomas Hoach and Thomas Gray were arrested today for holding up seven different men on one of the principal streets and rifling their pockets.

Several watches and other articles of jewelry were taken, together with a small amount of money. Three of the men have prison records and resisted arrest.

Help Wanted—Male.
BKAUFMAN, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Capt. John Graham, of Company C, Jersey City, was on trial by court-martial to-night in the Second Regiment Armory, accused of conduct unbecoming an officer in using bad language towards sergeants Brown, of the gun detachment.

Brown testified that Graham called him ugly names, threatened to throw him out of the window and blackened his eye. Capt. Graham denied using bad language, but admitted that he clinched with Brown. The decision will be submitted to the brigade commander.

Several watches and other articles of jewelry were taken, together with a small amount of money. Three of the men have prison records and resisted arrest.
